

BRIAN LEE HUGHES

Born in Hawaii the day before we landed on the Moon to an Australian Mother and a Texan Father, Brian Lee Hughes has since called 17 cities on 4 continents home, and could survive in 9 languages (English, Spanish, Italian, Danish, Swedish, Norwegian, Japanese, French, German).

His peripatetic polyglot life has involved stints as a Musician, Writer, Director, Actor, Gallerist, Art Collector, Record Producer, Promoter, Film Producer, Music Supervisor, Agency Creative, Graphic Designer, Clothing Designer, Book Designer, and as the Goalkeeper for the 4th-Division Danish football (soccer) club Jægersborg Boldklub.

For you Advertising aficionados, BLH started his career as an advertising creative at Kirshenbaum Bond + Partners (NYC), and for a decade spanned successful landings at Fallon Berlin (NYC + Mexico City + Tokyo), Mother (London), MTV (NYC), Modernista (Boston), DefJam, and TBWA\Chiat\Day (San Francisco & Los Angeles). His creative career highlight came in 2004 when Boards Magazine named him #1 Art Director in the World.

BLH is also known for co-founding Castleface Records ( castlefacerecords.com ), and Do Not Disturb Records ( donotdisturbrecords.com ) which have released over 100 albums combined. His Los Angeles based art gallery SADE LA ( s-a-d-e.la ) has earned it's place among the top art destinations as well.

Most of all though, he's a fighter against boredom and a fearless storyteller that everyone seems to have a story about.
